CALL FOR PAPERS

CIRCLES is an interdisciplinary journal published by students of the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law, the Department of Comparative Literature, the Department of Women's Studies and other interested students. We provide a forum for exploring the legal and social challenges facing women of diverse races, classes, and cultures, and invite all writers and artists to submit their work. Contributions may vary in format including, but certainly not limited to, articles, commentaries, poetry, fiction, book reviews, photography, and paintings. We are seeking to publish material that illuminates women's lives and furthers our understanding of each other.

All written submissions should be double-spaced, submitted in triplicate and, if possible, submitted on disk using WordPerfect 5.1. Please enclose a biographical note, and a brief abstract for longer submissions. Because the selection process is anonymous, include your name, address, and phone number on a separate sheet of paper- this information should not appear on your submission. Artwork should be submitted in photograph or slide form. If you prefer to have your artwork handled professionally, this can be arranged through a local gallery (Art Dialogue, 1 Linwood Avenue, Buffalo, NY 14209).

The deadline for the Spring 1993 Issue is November 15, 1992. Help make our next issue an exciting one! Send submissions to:
