bored by best-sellers? tired of the times? does the Buffalo News make you snooze? you can cure the blues by sending for a copy of In the Public Interest or The Opinion. both are student publications of the law school that are bound to bring back memories of how it feels to be a law student and offer fascinating insights into contemporary legal education.

in the Public Interest is a glossy 50 page magazine devoted to articles that examine the social implications of public interest legal work. published annually since 1980 by The Center for Public Interest Law and funded by the student bar association, the magazine prints seminar papers written by law students, although faculty members, alumni, and students of other disciplines are invited to submit material on current legal issues. world hunger and the right to food, oil and gas development in Allegany State Park, the New York State statute of limitations for toxic torts, and American prison as a subculture were among the topics covered in last year's issue.

Membership on the editorial staff is open to all law students. Editors are Mary Hurley and Steve Balmer. Editorial board members are Jeanne Waldman, Molly Dwyer and Maria Doti. For a free copy of the next issue, send a postcard with your address to In the Public Interest, Faculty of Law and Jurisprudence, John Lord O'Brian Hall, Rm. 118, Amherst Campus, Buffalo, New York 14260.

The Opinion is the law school's lively student newspaper. Published every two weeks during the academic year, it is filled with news and feature articles that report and analyze events, issues and people in the law school. sometimes playful, sometimes clever, and often painfully on target, The Opinion is a forum for ideas that reflect a broad range of student viewpoints. Articles cover such topics as the search for a dean, university budgets, faculty profiles and student organizations. Funded by the Student Bar Association and advertising revenues, the paper is celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary this year.

Editor-in-Chief is Victor R. Siclari. Working with him are John K. Lapiana, managing editor; Jeff H. Stern and Paul W. Kullman, news editors; Timothy J. Burvid, features editor; Jerry O'Connor, business manager. The Opinion staff includes Harry Bronson, Paul F. Hammond, Kevin O'Shaughnessy, Charles E. Telford. Contributors are Dave Chapus, Diane Dean, Brett Gilbert, Krista Hughes, John Martin, Elaine Pers, Peter Scribner and Amy Sullivan.

For a subscription, send a check payable to The Opinion, Faculty of Law and Jurisprudence, John Lord O'Brian Hall, Amherst Campus, Buffalo, New York 14260. Cost is $5 for a semester, $10 for the year.
