JUDGE JASEN RETIRES FROM STATE COURT

Senior Associate Judge Matthew J. Jasen '39 of the New York State Court of Appeals was honored by members of the legal community on his retirement at a testimonial dinner held Dec. 11 at the Hyatt Regency Buffalo. The celebration capped a distinguished legal and judicial career spanning 45 years, including 18 years upon the Court of Appeals.

State law requires judges to retire at the end of the year in which they reach the age of 70. In February, Jasen resumed the practice of law and became senior counsel to the Buffalo law firm of Moot & Sprague.

Among the 500 people present at the dinner, sponsored by the Bar Association of Erie County, were Judge Sol Wachtler, chief justice of the New York State Court of Appeals. He commented on Jasen’s “sense of loyalty and devotion,” and said that Jasen’s more than 800 opinions were known for their “clarity.” Charles D. Breitel, retired chief justice of the court from 1973 to 1978, praised Jasen for his high moral standards. The Law Alumni Association was among several legal organizations to sponsor a table for the event.

Jasen, who attended Canisius College, the University of Buffalo School of Law and Harvard Law School, School of Civil Affairs, was admitted to practice law in 1940.

During World War II, he served with the 7th Army in Europe. In 1946, he became U.S. Judge for the 3rd Military Government Judicial District in Heidelberg, Germany. In 1948, he returned to Buffalo to practice law as a senior partner in the firm of Jasen, Manz, Johnson and Bayger.

He was appointed to the New York Supreme Court in 1957 by Gov. Averell Harriman and elected to a full term the following year. He was elected associate judge of the New York State Court of Appeals in 1967 and nominated for an additional term in 1981.

Justice Jasen has received the Distinguished Alumnus Award of the UB Law School Alumni Association and the Edwin F. Jaeckle Distinguished Alumnus Award conferred by the Faculty of Law and Jurisprudence and the Law Alumni Association, among many other honors.

He recalled leaving the UB Law School — "a little old shabby building on Eagle Street downtown" — 65 years ago "with a pocketful of dreams." Three of those dreams, he said, have come true — "to still be alive at 85, to hold a teaching post in the UB Law School and to be a recipient of this great medal."
