Meet the 1990-91 Alumni Board

Anthony J. Colucci, Jr., senior managing partner in the multi-state law firm of Block & Colucci, P.C., has been elected to a term as president of the UB Law School Alumni Association for 1990-91.

Colucci assumed the position at the June meeting of the board of directors, where he cited outgoing president David E. Parker '77 for his outstanding service and leadership. Colucci promised that his administration would continue the momentum achieved by the organization over the past several years.

A 1955 graduate of Canisius College and a 1958 graduate of UB Law, Colucci is a past president of the Marshall Club and the St. Thomas More Guild. He served as chairman of the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, is a past trustee of St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute and Canisius College, and was designated a "Citizen of the Year" by the Buffalo News in 1984.

Colucci serves as a director on the boards of the Arts Council in Buffalo and Erie County, Sisters Hospital Foundation, New York State Project Finance Agency, and the New York State Mortgage Loan Enforcement and Administrative Corp.

The following officers will also serve for a one-year term: Jean Carol K. Powers '79, of Jaeckle, Fleischmann & Mugel, as president-elect; William F.
