Keep in touch with your former classmates, professors and friends by sending us your news for publication. It takes only a few minutes. Tell us about your professional activities, community involvement, recent marriage or new children. For your convenience, a clip-out coupon is printed on the back cover flap, or write to: Class Action, UB Law Forum, 320 John Lord O’Brien Hall, Buffalo, N.Y. 14260.

1930s
Hon. Norman Stiller ’30, of Snyder, N.Y., retired Supreme Court justice, has been named “Lawyer of the Year” by the Bar Association of Erie County at its 103rd annual dinner. Admitted to the bar in 1931, Stiller was recognized for outstanding service to the legal profession throughout his distinguished 60-year career.

1940s
Albert R. Mugel ’41, of Snyder, N.Y., has been elected a member of the Buffalo General Foundation Inc. A founding partner of Jaeckle, Fleischmann and Mugel, he is a longtime adjunct professor at the Law School.

1950s
Gordon R. Gross ’55, of Amherst, N.Y., was presented with the 1990 Community Relations Award by the American Jewish Committee’s Buffalo Chapter during the organization’s 47th annual meeting and dinner in June. Gross, senior partner in the Buffalo law firm of Gross, Shuman, Brizdle and Gilfillan, is a member of the Buffalo Board of Governors of the American Jewish Committee, a vice president of the Foundation for Jewish Philanthropies, secretary of St. Mary’s School for the Deaf, co-chairman of the Menorah Campus Capital Fund Drive and a member of the executive committee of the National Jewish Welfare Board.

He is also a past president of the Jewish Federation of Greater Buffalo, the Jewish Center of Greater Buffalo, the Kadimah School of Buffalo and the United Jewish Fund.

Grace Marie Ange ’57, a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Ange and Gordon, has been elected to serve on the New York State Bar Association’s 23-member Executive Committee. Active in Buffalo-area legal organizations, she chairs the Gender Bias Committee of the Erie County Bar Association and is a director of the Erie County Bar Foundation, among others. Her state bar activities include membership on the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section, chair of the Special Committee on Biotechnology and the Law, and co-chair of the Subcommittee on Arbitration and Mediation of the Family Law Section. She is also vice president and fellow of the New York Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers.

Joseph F. Crangle ’59, of Buffalo, has been designated “of counsel” to the law firm of Block & Colucci, P.C. Crangle is the former chairman of the New York State and Erie County Democratic Committees. He specializes in governmental agency practice and public law.
1960s

Frederick A. Burke '63, of Raleigh, N.C., recently became "of counsel" to the firm of Harlow, Reilley, Derr & Stark, of Research Triangle Park, N.C. Previously, he was general counsel for ITT's telecommunications subsidiary. He is admitted in New York, Ohio, Tennessee and North Carolina. He recently married Claire J. Sanchez, M.D., an assistant professor of medicine at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Richard H. Gordon '61, of Buffalo, senior partner in the Buffalo law firm of Ange and Gordon, published an article in the May 1990 New York State Bar Journal titled "Lawyers at Risk: A Challenge to NYSSBA." Gordon's practice is limited to family law. He is president of the Erie County Bar Foundation and a member of the New York State Bar Association’s Special Committee on Attorney Professionalism.

Joel L. Daniels '63, of Williamsville, N.Y., has been elected president of the 500-member Western New York Trial Lawyers Association. A Buffalo-area criminal lawyer, Daniels has been an attorney for 27 years. He is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University.

Ronald J. Thomas '67 has relocated his law office to New Canaan, Conn., where he resides, with a second office in New York City.

David M. Wexler '63, of Buffalo, has been accepted as a case study and feature contributor by World Medical Communications for its publication Medical Malpractice Prevention.

Eric C. Williams '65, of Pelham, N.Y., celebrated his 25th anniversary with the FBI on Aug. 9. He is a supervisory special agent in the Intelligence Division of the New York FBI field office. He also has served in the Memphis and Indianapolis FBI field offices and was assigned as a supervisory special agent attorney at FBI headquarters in Washington, D.C., with responsibility for the Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts. Williams is active in community and regional theater as an actor, having had principal roles in 16 plays and musicals in the past three years. He received critical acclaim for his portrayal of Elwood P. Dowd in the classic comedy "Harvey" at the Cameo Theatre in Greenwich, Conn. He is a member of the board of directors of Westchester County's New Rochelle Civic Theatre, Irvington Town Hall Players and Cameo Theatre, Greenwich, Conn.

David G. Jay '66, of Tonawanda, N.Y., has been elected vice president of Volunteer Lawyers Project Inc. Jay is a private practitioner and an adjunct professor at the Law School.

Harold J. Brand Jr. '67, of Williamsville, N.Y., has become president of the 3,060-member Bar Association of Erie County. As the executive assistant to the District Administrative Judge for the Eighth Judicial District, Brand holds the ranking non-judicial position within the Unified Court System in the eight counties of Western New York. A graduate of Canisius College, he previously was in private practice with the law firm of Block, Colucci, Callanan and Crangle, then became senior assistant Erie County district attorney.

Andrew Feldman '68, a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Damon & Morey, is involved in a program aimed at educating Japanese managers about the U.S. legal system. He recently returned from a trip to Japan, where he met with several Japanese executives. He recently appeared in a televised interview program on New York's CNBC to discuss the venture.

Robert P. Fine '68, of Williamsville, N.Y., senior partner in the Buffalo law firm of Hurwitz & Fine, has been named a recipient of the 1990 Distinguished Service Award by the Buffalo chapter of the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters and Chartered Financial Consultants.

Kenneth S. Kirnser '68, of Skokie, Ill., has joined W.W. Grainger Inc. as assistant general counsel. He was previously senior corporate counsel of Kraft Inc., in Glenview, Ill.

Nicholas J. Sargent '69, of Snyder, N.Y., was a speaker at the Erie County Association of Chiefs of Police. A senior partner in the Buffalo law firm of Sargent, Repka & Pino, he represents municipalities and school districts throughout Western New York in labor and employment law.

1970s

Richard L. Furman '70, of Woodbury, N.Y., practices in his own name as a P.C. in Great Neck, N.Y., where he specializes in trade and customs issues. He was recently a featured speaker at a conference held by the U.S. Small Business Administration in Niagara Falls, for the purpose of promoting the U.S.-Canadian Free Trade Agreement.

Edwin H. Wolf '70, of Buffalo, has been appointed executive director of the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra. Previously, he was managing partner of the Buffalo law firm of Falk & Siemer. Prior to that, he had been an engineer-physicist who headed a 40-member team at Sylvania, the electronics giant. For relaxation, Wolf plays the oboe with the Amherst Symphony Orchestra. He and his wife, Judy, have two grown children.

Terrence M. Connors '71, of Buffalo, has been named a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, based in Irvine, Calif. He is a senior partner in the Buffalo law firm of Connors and Vilardo. He serves on the Canisius College Raichle Pre-Law Board and the Committee on Character and Fitness for applicants for admission to the bar for the Eighth Judicial District. He is chair of the Criminal Justice Section of the New York State Bar Association.

James A. Ullman '71, of Paradise Valley, Ariz., recently joined the Phoenix law firm of Jennings, Strouss & Salmon as a partner. The governor of Arizona recently appointed him to a seven-year term on the State Board of Directors for Community Colleges.

David G. Brock '72, of East Amherst, N.Y., spoke at the annual meeting in July of the International Association of Defense Counsel on “Communicating With Non-clients” in the context of attorney professionalism. The program was sponsored by the Special Committee on Defense Counsel Practice Management. Brock is a litigation partner in the Buffalo office of Jaeckle, Fleischmann & Mugel.

Mark G. Farrel '72, of Williamsville, has been appointed to the Town of Amherst Board of Ethics for a period of five years. He is also serving as vice president of the UB Law Alumni Association. Farrel is managing partner in the Buffalo law firm of Farrell & Quackenbush.

Diane Beall Templin '73, of Escondido, Calif., works in the Advocate’s Legal Clinic, in Escondido. She writes that she has received Jesus Christ as her savior and Lord and has been born again.

Nancy Adel '74 and Barry Pollack '74 have been in practice together for 11 years in Los Angeles, Calif. In addition to plaintiff's injury litigation, they are also advising small businesses in transactional matters.

John E. Haslinger '74, of West Seneca, N.Y., has become a member of the law firm of Hiscock & Barclay. He was formerly with the Buffalo firm of Moot & Sprague.

James G. Rodriguez '74, of the Manhattan district attorney’s office, was featured in the May 1990 issue of The American Lawyer concerning his role as lead prosecutor in the third trial of Larry Davis. Rodriguez is a seven-year veteran in the D.A.’s office. He resides in St. Albans, N.Y.

Gary J. Schmitt '74 has joined the architectural and engineering firm of EI Associates as director of marketing. A graduate of Princeton University, Schmitt lives in Williamsville, N.Y.

Robert W. Constantine '75, a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Damon & Morey, was a featured guest on “AM Buffalo,” where he was interviewed by host Brian Kahle on the subject of wills and estate planning.

Stephen Levine '75, of Lihue, Hawaii, was recently appointed a deputy prosecutor for Kauai County, Hawaii.

William F. Savino '75, a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Damon & Morey, was a featured guest on “AM Buffalo,” where he was interviewed by host Brian Kahle on the subject of bankruptcy.

Ian C. DeWaal '75, of Arlington, Mass., is an assistant attorney general in the Massachusetts Department of the Attorney General, in Boston. He received a bachelor of music degree from the New England Conservatory.

Jay Wishingrad '75, of New York City, has joined McLaughlin, Stern, Ballen & Ballen as a partner. He heads the litigation department.

Greg Joe '76, of Piedmont, Calif., practices law in Oakland, Calif. In addition, he teaches in the music department of Mills College. He also has an audio engineering consulting business and, in his spare time, works as a tennis pro.

Rodney O. Personius '76, of Buffalo, has been named a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Brown & Kelly. A graduate of Syracuse University, he has been with the firm since 1988. He specializes in civil litigation.

Gail Rice '76 and James Rice '76, of New Rochelle, N.Y., report that they have been in private practice as a husband-wife team for seven years.

John C. Doscher '77, of Buffalo, is an assistant district attorney for the Erie County district attorney's office.

Paul M. Edgette '77, of Williamsville, N.Y., has been elected chairman and chief executive officer of Yorkshire Federal Savings and Loan Association in New York City. Yorkshire is a community-based lender concentrating on residential mortgages.

Edgette previously served in

Peter H. Duran '80

Washington as councilor to the director of the federal Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS), after working with Buffalo-based Empire Federal Savings Bank of America as executive vice president/director of corporate development, and as general counsel.

Before his financial services career, Edgette was a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Moot & Sprague for 10 years. He is an alumnus of Niagara University and served in Vietnam with the U.S. Marine Corps.

Nancy E. Mulloy '77, of Harrisburg, Pa., was recently elected president of the Association of Continuing Legal Education Administrators (ACLEA), an international association of over 350 lawyers and educators. Its purpose is to promote the creation and delivery of high-quality CLE services through non-profit organizations.

Mulloy is associate director of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, which assists attorneys in developing their professional skills and in keeping abreast of current legal developments.

John J. Privatera '77, of Glenmont, N.Y., has published an article in the July 1990 issue of the New York State Bar Journal titled “Where’s POPA? It Is Time to Enforce New York’s Property Owners Protection Act.” He is an assistant attorney general in the Environmental Protection Bureau of the New York State Department of Law.

Charlotte D. Roederer '77, of Amherst, N.Y., has been appointed vice president and associate general counsel at M&T Bank. She was formerly a member of the Buffalo law firm of Moot & Sprague. A graduate of Yale University, she is president of the Youth Orchestra Foundation of Buffalo Inc.

David M. Ascher '78, of South Orange, N.J., was elected to the South Orange-Maplewood Board of Education. He was the top fund-raiser for the Union County Chapter of the American Diabetes Association. He is an attorney for C.R. Bard Inc. in Murray Hill, N.J.

Garry M. Graber '78, a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Hodgson, Russ, Andrews, Woods & Goodyear, has been elected president of Volunteer Lawyers Project Inc., established by the Erie County Bar Association. Graber resides in Buffalo.

Kathleen M. Kazcmarek Mehltretter '78, of Buffalo, a U.S. Attorney, received the Director’s Award for Superior Performance from Attorney General Richard Thornburgh, in Washington, D.C.

Philip J. Szabla '78, of East Amherst, N.Y., has been elected to the board of directors of the University at Buffalo School of Management Alumni Association. He is a member of the Buffalo law firm of Albrecht, Maguire, Heffern & Gregg. P.C.

Ann E. Evanko '79, a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Hurwitz & Fine, has won the Marilyn Menge Award from the Women’s Bar Association of the State of New York in recognition of her dedication, devotion and outstanding service to the organization.

Gary M. Kanaley ’79, of Hamburg, N.Y., has joined the Buffalo law firm of Damon & Morey. A Certified Public Accountant, he is concentrating his practice in corporate law, taxation and tax controversies. He was formerly with Magavern & Magavern.

Dan D. Kohane ’79, a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Hurwitz & Fine, has been named an assistant systems operator for CompuServe Legal Forum, an on-line computer information service. Kohane lives in Buffalo.

Nancy D. Peck ’79, of Rochester, N.Y., is a partner in the Rochester law firm of Gould & Peck. This year, she is president of the National Conference of Women’s Bar Associations; chair of the Family Law Section, Monroe County Bar Association; and co-chair of the Women and the Courts Committee, American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. She was also recently elected a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation of the American Bar Association. Peck is a past president of Greater Rochester Association of Women Attorneys.

Joseph M. Schnitter ’79, of Buffalo, was admitted to membership in the law firm of Saperston & Day, P.C.

1980s

Ann B. Bermingham ’80, of Williamsville, N.Y., has been promoted to assistant vice president at Manufacturers & Traders Trust Co. She is responsible for trust and estate sales, marketing, estate planning and business continuation consulting at the bank. She is a graduate of Daemen College.

Peter H. Durant ’80, of Pittsford, N.Y., has become a partner in the Rochester office of Nixon, Hargrave, Devans & Doyle. He is primarily engaged in contract negotiation and is a member of the firm’s technology and intellectual property group. He received his M.B.A. from the University of Rochester.

Stephen Einstein ’80, of Staten Island, N.Y., reports that he is a founding partner of the New York City law firm of Schlussel & Einstein.

Judith J. Gische ’80, of New York City, has been appointed a Housing Court judge. She is a former associate at Richenthal, Abrams & Moss.

Timothy P. Johnson ’80, of Brighton, N.Y., has been named assistant vice president and associate counsel of Central Trust of Rochester. He formerly was a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Hodgson, Russ, Andrews, Woods & Goodyear.

Kenneth J. Landau ’80 has become a partner in the Mineola, N.Y., law firm of Shayne, Dachs, Stanisci, Corker & Sauer. He is a member of the Ethics Committee of the Bar Association of Nassau County and teaches negligence and law office management at C.W. Post College. He is also host of the radio show “Law You Should Know.”

Kenneth A. Olena ’80, of Buffalo, has joined the matrimonial law section of Siegel, Kelleher & Kahn. He had been a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Birzon, Kakia, Stapell, Olena & Davis. He is a graduate of Amherst College.

Elena Cacavas ’81 has been named a partner in the law firm of Hodgson, Russ, Andrews, Woods & Goodyear in Buffalo. She specializes in labor law.

Laurence D. Behr ’81, of Buffalo, has been admitted to membership in the law firm of Saperston & Day, P.C.
James J. Contino '81, of Williamsville, N.Y., has become a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Phillips, Lytle, Hitchcock, Blaine & Huber. He is a member of the commercial law department and practices in the area of real estate and community association law and development.

Mark C. Donadio '82, of Youngstown, N.Y., has been admitted to membership in the law firm of Saperston & Day, P.C.

Wendy K. Fechter '82, of Buffalo, has been named a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Hodgson, Russ, Andrews, Woods & Goodyear. She specializes in real estate law. She is a graduate of Fredonia State College.

Gary J. Gleba '82, of Buffalo, has become a member of the law firm of Albrecht, Maguire, Heffern & Gregg, P.C. He specializes in business taxation, qualified plans and other employee benefits law. He also serves as a faculty member of the UB Graduate Tax Certificate Program. He holds a LLM degree in taxation from Boston University School of Law.

Tamar P. Halpern '82, of Buffalo, has been named a partner in the law firm of Phillips, Lytle, Hitchcock, Blaine and Huber. A member of the trial department in the Buffalo office, she practices in the area of drug and medical device litigation. A graduate of Syracuse University, she also holds a master’s degree from the University of Maryland and a Ph.D. from the University at Buffalo.

Scott S. Oakley '82 writes that he left his position as assistant attorney general with the Maryland attorney general’s office in November 1989. He is “semi-retired” and cruising the Caribbean. He may resume his legal career in the U.S. Virgin Islands. “Stay tuned,” he says.

Cheryl A. Possenti '82, of Buffalo.

Tamar P. Halpern '82

James J. Contino '81

N.Y., has been admitted to membership in the law firm of Saperston & Day, P.C.

Judith A. Schwender '82, a partner in the Williamsville, N.Y. law office of Ward, Brenon, Schwender & Divita, is president of the East Amherst Rotary Club. Schwender served as secretary in 1989 and president-elect in 1990. She is the first female president in District 709, which consists of 57 Rotary Clubs.

Robert C. Schwenkel '82 has been named a partner in the New York City law firm of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson.

Mark K. Suzumoto '82, of Northridge, Calif., has become a partner in the Los Angeles law firm of Lillick & McHose.

Donald P. Chiari '83, of Cheektowaga, N.Y., has become a member of the Buffalo law firm of Maloney, Gallup, Roach, Brown & McCarthy.

Jeffrey S. Eisenberg '83, of New York City, joined the New York City law firm of Meissner, Kleinberg & Finkel to assist in federal and state business litigation matters. He also maintains his own practice in small business, corporate, commercial and real estate matters and transactions.

Carolyn Messana-Morrow '83, of Williamsville, N.Y., has become a shareholder in the law firm of Block & Colucci, P.C. She concentrates her practice in banking, public finance, real estate and secured loan transactions.

Linda J. Nenni '83, of Buffalo, has been appointed vice president and general counsel at Millard Fillmore Hospital. Formerly she was a partner in the Buffalo law firm of Falk & Siemer, where she specialized in health law.

Hildiegard Neubauer '83, of Buffalo, has been named a partner at the Ronald A. Sutton '85 has become associated with the Buffalo law firm of Albrecht, Maguire. Heffern & Gregg, P.C.

Anthony T. Casilio '86, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., has joined the Buffalo law firm of Cohen & Lombardo, P.C., as an associate in its corporate and tax department. He formerly served as senior tax consultant for the accounting firm of Ernst & Young.

David C. Fenster '86 has become an associate in the Buffalo law firm of Hurwitz & Fine, P.C.

Daniel J. Henry Jr. '86, of Lackawanna, N.Y., has joined the Hamburg, N.Y., law firm of Michaleck & Villarini. He formerly was an Erie County assistant district attorney under Kevin M. Dillon.

Molly Mahany '86, of New Seabury, Mass., was co-chair of the First Annual Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Golf Tournament, which was held Oct. 19.

James E. McElhone '86, of Coran, N.Y., is now practicing in the area of negligence defense at the Law Offices of Don F. Salkaln, in Hauppauge, N.Y. Previously, he spent three years in the Suffolk County district attorney's office.

Roy A. Mura '86 has become an associate in the Buffalo law firm of Saperston & Day, P.C. He resides in Amherst with his wife, Debra, and their three children.

Margaret L. Noonan '86, of Forestville, N.Y., has been appointed an associate in the Buffalo office of Block & Colucci, P.C. A member of the Chautauqua Bar, she specializes in estate and real estate law.

Gregory P. Rabb '86, associate professor of political science at Jamestown Community College, in Jamestown, N.Y., has published a booklet that compares the U.S. Constitution’s Bill of Rights and the Canadian Constitution’s Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Rabb received grants from the American Bar Association and the Canadian Consulate in Buffalo to underwrite the booklet. To receive a free copy, write him at 525 Falconer St., Jamestown, N.Y. 14701.

In July, Rabb participated in a month-long Fulbright Summer Seminar in the Netherlands, where he studied Dutch society.

Raul A. Rodriguez ’86 is associated with the Hartford, Conn., law firm of Arnold & Associates. A Democratic town committee member, he was recently elected secretary of the Democratic town committee in Hartford.

Alison L. Kent ’87, of Port Washington, N.Y., has joined the New York City matrimonial law firm of Rosenthal, Harman & Mantel, as an associate.

Jay M. Lippman ’87 reports that he is an assistant district attorney in New York City. He and his new wife, Janice S. Wieder, reside in New York.

Nora B. Sullivan ’87, of Buffalo, has become associated with the firm of Davis, Augello & Matteliano. She previously was confidential law clerk to Judge Edgar C. Nemoyer of the New York State Court of Claims.

D. Andrew Winston ’87, of Boulder, Colo., reports that he is practicing labor, employment and civil rights law on behalf of unions and workers. He is employed as an associate in the Denver firm of Hornbein, Macdonald, Fattor & Hobbs.

Mary Elizabeth Mattimore ’88, of Orchard Park, N.Y., has been elected to the board of directors of the Boys and Girls Club of Orchard Park Inc. She is an attorney with the Buffalo law firm of Lippes, Kaminsky, Silverstein, Porter, Mathias & Wexler.

Martin K. Pelcin ’88 is working for the public relations firm of Casey & Sayre in Malibu, Calif. He spends much of his time trying to get press coverage for the attorneys at Latham & Watkins, the third-largest law firm in California.

Al Greene ’89 has opened his own general law office in Williamsville, N.Y. A longtime journalist, he is an adviser to the student publications board of Erie County Community College.

Camille P. Wicher ’89, of Depew, N.Y., has joined with Julie Baronesi ’87 and Wanda Therof ’88 to form the Western New York Chapter of the American Association of Nurse Attorneys, a national organization. Wicher is a lawyer with Offermann, Mahoney, Cassano, Pigott, Greco & Whalen in Buffalo.

Marriages

Mark Steven Aquino, a third-year law student, and Julianne Marie Mycek.
August 4, 1990

Michael J. Biehler ’88 and Arlene L. St. Pierre.
May 19, 1990.

Thomas Patrick Callahan, a first-year law student, and Kathryn E. Permenter.

David G. Cohen ’87 and Dr. Norah Lincoff.

Michael Joseph Cooper ’86 and Chery Ann Marquart.
August 11, 1990.

Elizabeth A. Deutsch ’89, of Rochester, N.Y., and Christopher V. Taffe.
October 14, 1989.

Peter John Fiorella II and Barbara Ann Kennedy.
August 4, 1990.

David E. Fretz ’88 and Stephanie G. Hobika.

September 8, 1990.

Douglas F. Galvano ’89 and Janet L. Bush.
May 26, 1990.

Joseph G. Goergen II ’89 and Jacqueline J. Kuczkowski.
June 30, 1990.

Horace A. Gioia Jr. ’80 and Wendy Claire Swanson.
June 16, 1990.

Shawn W. Hill, a second-year law student, and Susan M. Runfola.

Kevin R. Kelly ’89 and Diane T. Zailac.

Deborah E. Kennedy ’87 and Kenneth T. Rogoza.

Henry W. Killeen III ’75 and Allitha E. Lango.

Births

To Carole and Gary P. Bluestein ’84, a daughter, Rachel Lynn, on Nov. 15, 1989.

To Susanne and Stuart P. Gelberg ’80, a daughter, Danielle Juliet, on May 2, 1989.

To Leslie and Richard Gottlieb ’85, a daughter, Katherine Degen, on Aug. 10, 1989.

To Valerie and Howard S. Rosenhoch ’76, a son, David Isaac, on March 19, 1990.

To Ruth and Lawrence M. Ross ’79, a daughter, Arielle Rumia, on April 7, 1990.

To Teresa and Jeffrey Stein ’83, a son, Alex Ethan, on Feb. 14, 1990.
Shawn D. Lavery, a third-year law student, and Jeffrey D. DeJames, March 10, 1990.

Robert D. Lipman '86 and Allison Plesur, July 1, 1990.

Patricia A. Maxwell '87 and James R. Reichert, Jan. 6, 1990.

Michael D. Morse '85 and Shenny Ann Reed, April 28, 1990.

Cynthia Nowak, a second-year law student, and Dennis W. Bergmann, July 28, 1990.

Kathleen A. Tenney '86 and David N. Willis, June 16, 1990.

Paul D. Weiss '89 and Kristin M. Heitman, June 2, 1990.

Ronald J. Winter '81 and Joan Carol Schwegler, Aug. 4, 1989.

In Memoriam

The Law School extends its deepest condolences to the families and friends of the following alumni/ae:

Matthew X. Wagner '19
Buffalo, New York

Edmund S. Brown '21
Buffalo, New York

Martha D. Watson '24
Williamsville, New York

William D. Hassett Sr. '26
Buffalo, New York

Solomon Daniels '27
Williamsville, New York

Roland H. Tills '27
Hamburg, New York

Vincent C. Moscato '29
Buffalo, New York

Joseph R. Carroll '32
Eggbensville, New York

Robert D. McClive '32
Buffalo, New York

Roland Segal '32
Snyder, New York

Robert J. Whissel '33
Snyder, New York

Hon. Michael Catalano '34
Sun City, Arizona

John B. Bean '35
Orchard Park, New York

Bernard M. Pogel '35
Pittsford, New York

Cmdr. Donald R. McKillen '37
East Aurora, New York

Edwin S. Phillips '39
Snyder, New York

Samuel A. Goldberg '43
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Edward B. Suttell '43
Batavia, New York

Marguerite Brennan '44
Apopka, Florida

Hon. Raymond R. Nieme '46
Williamsville, New York

George J. Trumper '46
Williamsville, New York

Hon. Robert A. Smolka '49
Clarence, New York

Michael S. Lalley '51
Hamburg, New York

George L. Grober Jr. '52
Buffalo, New York

Spero L. Yianilos '52
Kenmore, New York

David F. Brennan '53
Kenmore, New York

Mario C. Gambacorta '54
Amherst, New York

Thomas E. Hagmeir '56
Lancaster, New York

Richard N. Kirchgraber '59
Kenmore, New York

George Wallach '67
Columbia, Missouri

Jeffrey R. Frank '71
Evansville, Indiana

Paul White '81
Albany, New York

Michael J. Phelan
Buffalo, New York