Class Reunion Committees Forming

Did you graduate Law School in '44, '49, '54, '59, '64, '69, '74, '79, '84, or '89?

If so, it's time to get busy and start to organize a group of your classmates into a Class Reunion Committee.

The life-long friends you made and the good times you shared during your three-year journey through UB Law deserve to be remembered — and celebrated — in your class' own special way. To encourage reunions, the Law School and Alumni Association gladly provide — at no charge — address and phone lists, mailings, a photographer to take a class picture and a photo for each classmate. We also offer advice on everything from balloons to mugs to memory books and do whatever else we can to assist reunion organizers.

Ilene Fleischmann, executive director of the Alumni Association, welcomes calls and letters from classes planning reunions. If you let her know what is being planned, she can help pass the word along. She will be especially delighted to hear from anyone who wants to volunteer as a reunion chair. Call her at (716) 645-2107, or write to her at 310 John Lord O'Brien Hall, Buffalo, N.Y. 14260.
