UB LAW GOES TO CENTRAL N.Y. AND NIAGARA COUNTY

UB Law recently held alumni/ae receptions for those who live and work in Central New York and Niagara County. The Buffalo-based firm of Block & Colucci, which has a Syracuse office, sponsored a cocktail party on Thursday, April 30, in the impressive Skydeck at Carousel Center, in Syracuse, while the Niagara Falls, N.Y. firm of Boniello, Anton, Conti & Boniello hosted a reception on Wednesday, June 3, at the elegant Niagara Falls Country Club, in Lewiston.

The Alumni Association extends its appreciation to both firms, as well as to those alumni/ae who volunteered to help organize these first-time events: Douglas C. Johnston '81, in Syracuse, and Ralph A. Boniello III '69, Thomas J. Caserta, Jr. '80, and Richard J. Rotella '90, in Niagara County.

GOLD GROUP

In March, more than 100 members of The GOLD Group — Graduates of the Last Decade — partyed at Garcia's Irish Pub, in Buffalo (see photo spread). Several inexpensive social happenings, ranging from sports events to happy hours, and career seminars for law students are currently being planned by these enthusiastic young alumni/ae. Stay tuned.

Mark E. Brand, Class of 1988, was elected GOLD Group chairperson at a meeting held April 28 at the Buffalo law firm Saperston & Day. He is an associate with Phillips, Lytle, Hitchcock, Blaine & Huber, in Buffalo.

GREATER NEW YORK

Members of the Greater New York Chapter gathered last fall for an informal evening of friendship and networking accompanied by an authentic Spanish feast at El Quijote, a charming restaurant located at 226 West 23rd St. According to alumni/ae, dinner was "mucho delicious" and was served in abundant quantity, including five Spanish "tapas".

For the traditional New Year's luncheon at the Tower Suite, alumni/ae from across the state came together atop the Time Life Building. Once again, this popular event was held in conjunction with the New York State Bar Association Annual Meeting in late January. Edward M. Flint '82, newly elected president of the Greater New York Chapter, thanked founding president Neil E. Botwinoff '82 for helping to form the group and presented him with a plaque on behalf of the Law Alumni Association. Dean Filvaroff was the speaker.

In addition to Flint, who is counsel to the New York City law firm Townley & Updike, new officers are Neil E. Botwinoff '82, vice president; Peggy A.

Rabkin '75, treasurer; and Janet A. Cohen '87, secretary.

Directors are: Susan L. Beberfall '80, Christine Berminger '89, Harold S. Boxer '76, Peter D. Conrad '77, Joseph T. Donovan '80, Susan M. Feitoza '89, Terrence A. Greiner '87, Gail I.
