UB Law Forum

Volume 13
Number 1 Winter 2000

1-1-2000

Contents

UB Law Forum

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/ub_law_forum

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/ub_law_forum/vol13/iss1/3

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Alumni Publications at Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in UB Law Forum by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. For more information, please contact lawscholar@buffalo.edu.
Contents
Winter 2000

4 Message from the Dean

6 Spotlight on Women
Sisters in Law: Conference looks back on a century of achievement

14 110th Commencement applauds pioneering women

22 Erma Jaecle '36 receives Jaecle Award

24 Remembering Hon. M. Dolores Denman

Alumni Profiles
26 Sara Horowitz '89 wins MacArthur genius award

28 Herald Price Fahring '56 v. The City of New York

30 Kenneth S. Kasdan '76 builds success

Law School Report
32 New admissions team raises our visibility

34 Criminal Law Center launches master's-degree program

36 Innovative courses explore legal issues:
  • International Labor Law
  • Jailhouse Lawyering
  • State Counsel Clinic

42 Moot courts argue devilish questions

44 Regional recap at Law Review symposium

46 Students of Color celebrate diversity

Giving
48 Honor Roll of Donors:
  • Student becomes a major donor
  • '98 alumnus keeps a promise

56 Reunion gifts are growing
Faculty
62 New books authored by faculty
63 Ellen Gibson retires from library post
64 Two new research and writing instructors

Alumni Association
66 Message from President
   Kenneth A. Manning ’77
68 1999-2000 officers and board
70 GOLD Group galvanizes grads
72 Alumni Awards go to six
74 Renewal in Rochester
76 Rudy talks tough in NYC

77 Class Action: marriages, births, deaths and reunions
   Judicial retirements