

7-1-1979

A Tribute to Joseph Laufer

Buffalo Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/buffalolawreview>

Recommended Citation

Buffalo Law Review, A Tribute to Joseph Laufer, 28 Buff. L. Rev. 437 (1979).

Available at: <https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/buffalolawreview/vol28/iss3/1>

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Journals at Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Buffalo Law Review by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. For more information, please contact law scholar@buffalo.edu.

A TRIBUTE TO JOSEPH LAUFER

In January 1979, Professor Joseph Laufer retired after twenty-one years of teaching at the Buffalo Law School. His students and colleagues will always remember him as a scholar, humanitarian, and dedicated teacher. The editors dedicate this issue to Professor Emeritus Laufer in appreciation of all that he has done for those eager to learn.

Dedications by:

David F. Cavers

Daniel J. Gifford

Hon. Charles S. Desmond

James L. Magavern

Hon. Oscar H. Davis

Hon. Haim Cohn

Marshall J. Breger

Thomas E. Headrick

