2003-04 GOLD Group Expands Its Reach

UB Law Forum

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/ub_law_forum

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/ub_law_forum/vol16/iss1/38

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Alumni Publications at Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in UB Law Forum by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. For more information, please contact lawscholar@buffalo.edu.
2003-04 GOLD Group expands its reach

Mary Penn, a civil litigation attorney at Altreuter Habermehl, in Buffalo, will lead the 2003-04 GOLD Group board of directors. Penn has been a board member of the GOLD Group since 2000, chairing the education committee in 2001-02. Penn is a 1988 graduate of the State University College at Buffalo, and a 1999 graduate of UB Law School. Since graduating from law school, Penn has remained active in the Volunteer Lawyers Project in Buffalo representing low-income clients in housing court.

"My goals as incoming president include increasing the success of the continuing legal education programs that are the hallmark of the GOLD Group," says Penn. "This goes hand in hand with increasing the financial independence and prosperity of the Group."

Other officers elected for the coming year are: Hilary C. Banker '96, of Ergo, Kita & Curvin, as president-elect; Irene Chiu '00, of Hodgson, Russ LLP as treasurer; Thomas S. Lane '97, of Webster Szanyi LLP, as secretary; Roseanne McMorrow '01, of the Erie County District Attorney's Office, and Antonietta D. Mucilli '99, of National Fuel Gas Corp., as education co-chairs; Jennifer Hurley '04, of Hollebeck and Hurley LLP and D. Charles Roberts Jr. '97, of Delaware North Companies, Inc., as social co-chairs; Sharon L. Nosechuck '94, of Neighborhood Legal Services as membership chair; Kathleen J. Martin '99, of the Law Offices of Francis M. Letra, as recruitment chair; William Chen '00, of Hurwitz & Fine P.C., as communications chair; and Gregory A. Mattacola '98, of McMahon, Grow & Getty, as immediate past-president.

Additional board members include: Gretchen P. Aylward '95, of Hiscock Barclay Saperston & Day; Luke S. Bassis '03; Marc W. Brown '99, of Phillips Lytle LLP; Philip Dabney Jr. '02; Samuel Davis '02, of Pratcher & Associates, PC; Lenore B. Foote '97, of the City of Buffalo's Corporation Counsel; Pietra G. Lettieri '01, of Harris Beach LLP; Brigid M. Maloney '98, of SUNY at Buffalo's School of Medicine; Kristin St. Mary '03, of Phillips Lytle LLP; Jeffrey J. Weiss '96, of Hodgson Russ LLP; Stephanie Williams-Torres '00, of Hiscock Barclay Saperston & Day; and Stephen L. Yorits '94, of Hodgson Russ LLP.

The GOLD Group encourages interested alumni graduating within the past ten years to become involved with the organization. Contact Mary Penn at (716) 853-1152 for information on becoming a member of the GOLD Group board of directors.