“Every gift matters! Together, our contributions provide over 14 percent of the School’s annual budget. We allow the Law School to provide the student support, educational program, and infrastructure that make it a leader in legal education. These pages highlight just a few of the many ways our gifts are helping today’s students and driving the School forward. I hope you will reflect upon what our Law School means to you and all that it has allowed you to accomplish, and will then give generously. Thank you very much.”
