Brian M. Melber ’96 elected president

Brian M. Melber ’96, left, has been elected president of the SUNY Buffalo Law Alumni Association. A partner in the Buffalo law firm of Personius and Melber, he concentrates his practice in white-collar criminal defense, business litigation, commercial litigation, personal injury and false claims practice. A 1992 graduate of Canisius College, he was an associate with Brown & Kelly from 1996 through 2001 before joining Personius and Melber. A member of the American Bar Association, the Erie County and New York State bar associations and the Western New York Trial Lawyers Association, he is a director of the Bar Association of Erie County.

Melber is an adjunct instructor of trial technique and advanced trial technique at SUNY Buffalo Law School, and has trained law students for moot court trial competitions against law schools across the nation for more than 10 years.

New alumni directors for a three-year term are:
- Christopher E. Copeland ’02
- Michael T. Feeley ’92
- Joseph M. Hanna ’05
- Ryan J. Mills ’03
