Civil Justice Symposium 2014: Recent Developments in Tort Law and Practice

An all-day conference kicks off with a morning keynote address by renowned attorney Kenneth R. Feinberg, who will deliver the Lippes Lecture, Monday, Oct. 6, 2014, 8:30 a.m., at the Hyatt Regency Buffalo.

The Lippes Lecture, titled "Settlements and Compensation Funds," is free and open to the public, with prior registration.

The conference, featuring nationally prominent judges and attorneys, will follow and includes 4.5 non-transitional CLE credits, Continental breakfast, lunch and a cocktail reception for $125 ($100 for paid members of the SUNY Buffalo Law Alumni Association).

For more information and to register for the lecture and/or conference, visit:

The Lippes speaker, Kenneth R. Feinberg, is an attorney who has overseen the administration of compensation funds established on behalf of the victims of the 9/11 World Trade Center attack, the Deepwater Horizon oil spill, the Boston Marathon bombing, and several other high-profile mass disasters and mass torts.

The Lippes Lecture is co-sponsored by SUNY Buffalo Law School and the University at Buffalo School of Management
