The Law School hosted its fourth annual 50+ Reunion Luncheon

The Law School hosted its fourth annual 50+ Reunion Luncheon, an event that welcomes alumni who have graduated 50 or more years ago. Alumni and guests joined Vice Dean Alan S. Carrel '67 as this wonderful tradition continued on Aug. 8. In attendance were alumni ranging from the classes of 1943 to 1957. The event took place in the newly renovated Law School Conference Center in O'Brian Hall. In addition to the lively conversations between alums, May 2007 graduates Renee M. Rozier and Jacia T. Smith joined the group and briefed attendees on new developments at the Law School from the perspective of recent students.
