Message From the Interim Dean
1  A Commencement reflection on the power of persuasion

Cover story
2  The clout factor: Alumni making a difference the world over

Law School Report
10 Terrence M. Connors ’71 accepts the Law School’s highest honor
11 Mitchell Lecture wrestles with the changing legal profession
12 Advocacy Institute benefits from high-powered board
13 Former Seneca Nation president is keynote speaker at Commencement
14 A fighter for gay dignity is honored at OUTLaw Dinner
15 Buffalo Law Review Dinner marks a milestone in impact
16 Students of Color hear some parting words of inspiration
17 Our students in Paris as climate-change history is made
18 SUNY’s highest teaching award goes to Professor Mark Bartholomew
19 New social justice position highlights administrative changes

Faculty
20 Clinical program welcomes three new faculty members
23 In the news: Samantha Barbas on Hulk Hogan, Nellie Drew on Tom Brady
24 Associate Professor Matthew Steilen wins spot in leading conference

Philanthropy
25 A gift from David Manch ’70 honors teaching legend Ken Joyce
26 Loraine Yates joins the development team as major gifts officer
27 Help put the Campaign for UB School of Law over the top!

Bookshelf
29 Jeena Cho ’03 leads the way to mindful lawyering
30 An honest and riveting memoir by TheArthur A. Duncan II ’12
31 Judy Scales-Trent, emerita professor, tells her grandfather’s story

Alumni Association
32 Celebrating our Distinguished Alumni Awards winners

Left to right, Susan Carrel, Hon. Paul L. Friedman ’68 and Alan S. Carrel ’67 at Buffalo Law Review dinner

Professor Ken Joyce has influenced the careers of thousands of students.

Left to right, Gena Ashe, Mason P. Ashe ’89 and Hon. Kevin M. Carter ’89 at Distinguished Alumni Award dinner