Table of Contents

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/buffalolawreview

Recommended Citation

Available at: https://digitalcommons.law.buffalo.edu/buffalolawreview/vol67/iss3/21

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Journals at Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Buffalo Law Review by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ University at Buffalo School of Law. For more information, please contact lawscholar@buffalo.edu.
The Baldy Center’s 40th Anniversary Conference: Tempering Power

Contents

Forward

Tempering Power
Errol Meidinger ................................................................. 519

Articles

Tempered Power, Variegated Capitalism, Law and Society
John Braithwaite .................................................................. 527

Law and Power in Health Care: Challenges to Physician Control
Mary Anne Bobinski ............................................................. 595

‘Otro Mundo Es Posible’: Tempering the Power of Immigration Law through Activism, Advocacy, and Action
Susan Bibler Coutin .............................................................. 653

Transformative Constitutions and the Role of Integrity Institutions in Tempering Power: The Case of Resistance to State Capture in Post-Apartheid South Africa
Heinz Klug ........................................................................ 701

What’s the Point of the Rule of Law?
Martin Krygier .................................................................... 743

Is China a “Rule-by-Law” Regime?
Kwai Hang Ng ..................................................................... 793

What Good is Abstraction? From Liberal Legitimacy to Social Justice
Nimer Sultany ....................................................................... 823

“What People [May Yet Be] a Kind of Solution” Late Imperial Thoughts on the Humanization of Officialdom
David A. Westbrook & Mark Maguire ..................................... 889
Transnational Law as Socio-Legal Theory and Critique: Prospects for “Law and Society” in a Divided World

Peer Zumbansen .......................................................................................................................... 909